

University of Michigan Aphasia Community (UMAC) Group Sessions

UMAC is a group communication program where you can meet others with aphasia and boost your language skills in a supportive environment. UMAC is open to everyone in the aphasia community and all communication levels are welcome.

Program Highlights:

- High-quality, low-cost program.
- Variety of group sizes, topics and skill building.
- Run by a licensed Speech Language Pathologist.
- Cost is $140 for four sessions, due at the time of registration.

Wednesdays
9 - 11:45 a.m.

September: 5, 12, 19 & 26

October: 3, 10, 17, 24 & 31

November: 7, 14 & 28

Sessions take place at the U-M Facilities
Planning & Development Building:
2101 Commonwealth Blvd. Suite B
Ann Arbor, MI 48105

Call (734) 764-8440 to register or visit
AphasiaHelp.com for more information.

MARY A. RACKHAM INSTITUTE

UNIVERSITY CENTER FOR LANGUAGE AND LITERACY
UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN