

Do you know a child who may need additional help with language development?

The UCLL Preschool and Communication Therapy (PACT) program can help.

The PACT program is for children 3-4 years who may be showing language or communication delays.

What to Expect:

- Assessment of language skills before and after the program.
- Structured play-based learning.
- Therapy with certified and licensed Speech-Language Pathologists.
- Group learning to help develop social and language skills.
- Small number of participants to keep adult-to-child ratio near 1:1.
- Services provided at UCLL in Ann Arbor, with free valet parking.
- Program sessions are four weeks and include 32 hours of therapy.

Contact us for more details, including dates, fees and financial assistance.
